

The VCU Institute for Women's Health Presents

"Out in the Open: A Discussion of Female Sexual Disorders"

---

How to Treat a Woman: Strategies for Healthcare & Self-Care

---

An ongoing, year-round series of brown-bag seminars focused on women's health — open to all

Date: Wednesday, September 19, 2012

Time: 12 p.m. to 1 p.m.

Location: Main Hospital, 1st Floor Learning Center

About the Presentation

Dr. Christine Isaacs will provide a general overview of Female Sexual Disorders/Dysfunction that are common to many women. These include issues of low desire ("low libido"), arousal, orgasm and pain concerns. She will review treatment strategies targeted to these various issues and answer questions that are commonly asked.

About the Speaker

Dr. Christine Robillard Isaacs is an Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Virginia Commonwealth University, in Richmond, Virginia. She is the Director of the Generalist Division of Ob/Gyn and the medical director of the Midwifery service. She maintains an active clinical practice with special interests in natural childbirth, reproductive health, and contraceptive choices. Her current research interests include integrating group prenatal care models into residency training programs, techniques of cesarean section, and residency education structure. When not busy at work, she enjoys various adventures with her husband Jonathan, and her daughters Sophia and Olivia.

Fees: None — free and open to all. No pre-registration required.

For more information: Visit www.womenshealth@vcu.edu or call 804-827-1200.

VCU Institute for Women's Health